NEW EXHIBITORS AT ANTIQUE FAIR

Pretoria, 11 March 2013. There is nothing better to do on Human Rights Day in Pretoria than to shop for bargains at the popular antique and collectors' fair at the Voortrekker Monument. The will take place on Thursday, 21 March from 09:00 until 15:00 on the roof of the large amphitheatre on site.

Several new exhibitors will have stalls for the first time as stalls are extremely popular and there is a huge waiting list for intending exhibitors. The fair presents a wide variety of collectors' and antique items for sale. These include coins, medals, fine porcelain, semi-precious stones, jewellery, old records, dolls, second hand and new books, old toys, radios, cameras and even old scientific instruments – too many to mention.

There are food stalls and a restaurant and also some great deli foods. Safe parking is available at only R20 per vehicle. Children may run around and play in a safe environment or take part in a guided horse ride.

Enquiries concerning the antique market may be directed to Geraldine at 012 326 6770 or at marketing@voortrekkermon.org.za.
